The Barren Rocks of Aden is a march tune and is one of the first tunes our pipers learn to play on the pipes. It that has a strong association with the Gordon Highlanders Regiment because you can play it for the dance called 'The Gay Gordons'. We play it as part of a set along with The Brown Haired Maiden and Mhairi's Wedding.

The Barren Rocks Of Aden This march tune is associated with the Gordon Highlanders Regiment, because it is played for the dance called 'The Gay Gordons'. The tune is said to have been composed by piper James Mauchline, who was delighted that his regiment was leaving the hot, dry port of Aden, in what is now South Yemen, in Arabia.

Subject: RE: Lyrics needed: Barren Rocks of Aden From: Malcolm Douglas Date: 22 Aug 03 - 12:46 AM Not in this thread, I expect. As I said, though, there is a much more recent one. Our anonymous correspondent managed, as new visitors so often do, to find only the oldest and least useful discussion on the subject in the archive.

The title of the book, "From Barren Rocks to Living Stones" has been one thing that has stirred interest for some. The first half of the title springs from the title of a piece of music called "The Barren Rocks of Aden". The tune and the song appear to have a number of beginnings. The music was witten on its own, with no words, in the nineteenth Century, in an attempt to reflect the feelings ...
