This Karen Kingsbury book really needs to be read in order, after Even Now. I am sorry to tell you that Lauren will also annoy you in Even Now, too, but I guess it can't be helped! I cried and cried and cried, and sometimes, Kingsbury does that to a reader. I love Karen Kingsbury, and this book is certainly one of her best!

Even Now/Ever After. I LOVE KAREN KINGSBURY!! This is by far one of my most favorite books/series by her. I sat for hours and hours, couldn't put the book down. I shed many tears over Ever After. Even though the books are christian-fiction, the facts and stories happen everyday. I am more thankful now for our military heroes. Thank you Karen, for being such an inspiration in so many ways! Best ...

Ever After is another book by Karen Kingsbury that I did not want to stop reading to eat, sleep or anything else. It truly is another fictional story that could and does seem to be the predicament(s) that we or family or friends are or have been as well. It seemed to me that this book was less predictable than I have found some to be. I felt a wide range of emotions as I read this book and I ...

Not up to Kingsbury's quality I love Karen Kingsbury's books and have read them all. Ever After was a real disappointment. To begin with, the reader is terrible. She tries to sound like a man for the male characters and the farther into the book you go, the more grating it becomes. And listening to the book made me feel like I was in a giant ...
