Freefall. By Robin Brande. Adult. Rated 4.50 / 5 based on 2 reviews Young widow Eliza Shepherd moves to her husband's home town to help his mother and to do research for the book she's writing about his life as an adventurer. She doesn't expect the pain she'll find there--or the pleasure. Eliza already had one good man in her life, and isn't looking for another. But love has a way of appearing ...

Freefall is a wonderful romance for women. The main character, Eliza, is a widow who finds a new life when she moves to Syracuse, New York from the West. Ms. Ruston writes an intricate plot full of exciting dialogue between all of the characters. I laughed and cried while I was reading this book because of Eliza's heartfelt journey that is beautifully written by this author. Ruston uses dialogue and characters much like Jane Austen, and the reader will be swept away by the ...
