Make It Fun. Most reading comprehension skills can be taught in two ways -- the boring way and the kid-friendly one. Instead of having students practice making predictions, have kids take turns sharing the storyline of their favorite books and predicting how each other's books may end. Instead of having students write summaries of the books they have read, have them write book reviews to be ...

Skill - Reading Comprehension Name 5 Flavors Story By: Andrew Frinkle Henry was always thinking about eating. He was hungry, and he liked to cook. It occurred to him that most things that were good seemed to be a combination of flavors. Like, chocolate was good, but mixed with raisins and peanuts, it became great! Or, pineapple went great with pizza, because the sweetness worked well with the ...

Skill - Reading Comprehension Name The Crazy Bus The public school nearby has a terrible secret: The Crazy Bus! All the kids dreaded bus assignments at the beginning of each year, fearing they'd get put on the Crazy Bus. From the outside, it looked like any old yellow school bus, but once you climbed aboard, all bets were off! There was barbed wire over the windows to keep kids from trying to ...

Skill - Reading Comprehension Name Yard Work It seemed like the work would never end for Steven. He was helping his brother and father in the yard. Each weekend, there was something to do. Why they couldn't just sit inside and watch cartoons like all the other kids, he did not know. With a sigh, he pulled his rake a little harder and faster, hoping he might still get done in time for the last ...

Skill - Reading Comprehension Name A New Tennis Racket It was spring, and Margie wanted to get a new tennis racket, new tennis balls, and a really neat case to keep her racket clean. There was only one problem. The tennis racket, balls, and case were too expensive. Margie only saved up $10.00, and that was not even close to what she would need to buy her equipment. I could ask mom and dad for ...

All organisms have needs, such as food, water, and air. If the needs of the organisms in the ecosystem are not met, they cannot survive. Animals usually need food, water, and shelter. For example: if deer need to eat grass and the place they live in (their ecosystem) no longer has grass, they have to move somewhere else or risk not surviving.
