Hell's Angels '69 (1969) - IMDb

We had a typical funeral - ironic, I know - but during the wake we heard a tremendous commotion outside, like hundreds of bees landing in the parking lot. The door swung open, and in walked two or three dozen hardcore bikers - bandanas, Hells Angels vests, sunglasses, skulls on everything, dirty leather chaps, long greasy hair, smell of motor oil and whiskey. My conservative family fell silent ...

Angels of Death – The Sun

In 1965, the Hells Angels were little known outside the American West. LIFE photographer Bill Ray spent several weeks in Southern California, photographing and traveling with the San Bernardino chapter of a gang that would soon become notorious for its hedonistic, lawless swagger. The motto of the Hells Angels encapsulates how society sees them. Hells Angels is a motorcycle gang associated ...
