I have to agree with the other reviews about this book. I'm using it only because it's required for the MBA/MS Finance level Accounting class. The only reason I could see that they might have chosen this book is that its focus is on financial reporting as opposed to being a traditional Financial Accounting 101 book. There are 2 huge problems in ...

This was an excellent introduction to the world of Financial Accounting! The lectures covered a lot of material involving financial statements and analyzing these year-over-year. The professor also made the course really interesting with 'virtual' students who asked questions and made jokes along the way. The review questions, midterm and the final exam were fair in that you could use the ...
