All the land of this world belongs to God, and He and He alone created it. So we are to keep God's law all over the land—the world. All states, all countries, the laws of God remain the same, nothing is changed!! The Kingdom of Heaven is to be established here on earth as it is in Heaven. God's law doesn't change from state to state or country to country! Romans 13 states that we, God's ...

This connection between Law and land cuts across the distinction between so-called civil, ceremonial, and moral laws. Furthermore the loss of the land in 587 B.C. has profound implications for the way the Law is to be viewed, precisely because the Law defined the terms for blessing in the land. In addition, when Israel was taken captive to Babylon, the Israelites lost the presence of the Lord ...
