Just finished Delver magic Book I: Sanctum's Breach and for the most part I really enjoyed it. Toward the end I became so involved that I nearly missed my bus stop. There were a few things however that kept this from being a 5. First of all Mr Inlo must have taken his eye off the sword at one point. There were only three human women in the book and he still called Lauren Rachel. I guess he ...

Another wonderful tale by Jeff inlo. Having read all previous books in the Delver Magic series, I found this work as wonderful as all the rest. Without spoiling much, I enjoyed the personal growth of the Wizard Jure and the adaptation of Ryson's allies to the transformations within their world. I look forward to many more adventures in the land of Uton. However, I was worried over the absence ...
